

Dear FCC

Please leave the "NJ Do not call" rule the way it is - it works! I am paying for the telephone in my home and should not want to avoid using it because of the telemarketers that do not know how to take no - it is almost like the salesman who puts their foot in the door and will not let you close the door to your own home. It is an invasion of privacy